Who else wants to spend less time studying and get better grades?

The academic essay is the mainstay of assessment from the sixth-form upwards. Yet formal training in this complex area is rarely given and students spend unnecessary time struggling to get it right

This book includes details on how to:

- researching your topic
- writing a clear and succinct opening
- using the right words and grammar
- analysing and interpreting information
- writing complete body paragraphs
- acknowledging sources

Market

- All pupils/students in full- or part-time education from age 16 upwards
- Teachers, tutors and parents who want to support their pupils or children in their learning
- University, College and School libraries
- Adult Students in the Open University
